Re: Rothstein, et al. v. GMAC Mortgage, LLC et al., No. 12 Civ. 3412 (S.D.N.Y.)
(AJN) (AJP)

Dear Judge Nathan:

We represent Plaintiffs in the above-referenced action, and write regarding Plaintiffs' Third Amended Complaint.

Pursuant to the April 8, 2014 Stipulation and Amended Scheduling Order signed by Magistrate Judge Andrew J. Peck, Plaintiffs had until April 23, 2014 to file their Third Amended Complaint. On that day, pursuant to Rule 4.A of Your Honor's Individual Practices in Civil Cases, the parties filed a Stipulation attaching the Third Amended Complaint ("TAC"), with a joint letter by the parties requesting redaction of specific portions of the TAC. On April 29, 2014, Your Honor preliminarily denied the redaction request and allowed the parties to renew the request within one week.

The parties conferred on the issue and decided not to submit a renewed redaction request. Plaintiffs now respectfully submit this letter to Your Honor, amending the Stipulation filed on April 23, 2014 for Your Honor's signature, and for filing of the unredacted Third Amended Complaint via ECF. Defendants consent to this request.

The Court will sign the parties' Stipulation. However, the parties are reminded that, pursuant to Rule 1.A of the the Court's Individual Practices in Civil Cases, all such letters must be filed on ECF.
SO ORDERED.
